Other change As discussed with OMB, we need to continue using the forms previously cleared under this information collection for a while longer. It is necessary to continue using the previously cleared forms because an unexpected development in the procurement of a new consolidation contract would make it fiscally irresponsible on our part to implement the recently approved forms at this time. As agreed, we will notify OMB if we need to revise the recently approved forms as a result of the procurement of the new consolidation contract and will go through the Paperwork Reduction Act clearance process before implementing revised forms.
